

A lot more about u ✨

When you're tired, don't think twice before falling into my arms.

I'm tired, too, but I'll never run out of love for you ❤️

So with this, let's continue...

You told me to write a book about you?

Yes, sure, I can write an entire series of books for ❤️ love and do anything that makes you happy.

It's almost the 4th semester now. Let me start this with the end of the 3rd semester break...

ahhhhh. Before that, thanks for helping me out in studies also...

Now, come back to that semester-end break, you know I had texted you something, and you did not reply for 1 day. You know how much I was thinking about you? Like, what happened? Are you alright or not... You know how much ruckus I had created?

I had called Lohith and Naipunya and was telling them, "What happened to her? Why is she not texting me....." They were like, chill, she is in native, give her time to settle there, she will text you back, and yes, you did.

You know how happy I was when your name popped up on my notifications?

Yeah, time passed, and we were texting normally. And in holidays, I decided to make something special for you, so I planned to make a website for you which includes everything that I write about you and every small moment I spend with you... Yes, I don't know how much you like that website, do you love it?

So now, at the end of the holidays, I texted you big-ass paragraphs saying that I'm really going to hurt myself if we both continue as friends after you said, "I'm really sorry I'm not interested in a relationship." I remember the date also; it was 25th Feb...

So, I texted you so many reasons, you know, why it would hurt me, and you know I was actually crying while texting those...

After that, we literally stopped texting each other. Then that night you texted me about the student exchange program, and that's it. 5 days, literally 5 fucking days... You know, ask Lohith and Naipunya how much I was hurt, I cried so badly those days. Then one fine day, you texted me again, then you asked me, "You really don't want to talk to me?" Then we started talking. I felt so, so happy that day.

Again, after few days, I don't know what happened, I texted something and I was literally in a bad mood that day. I started that we should end the friendship, blah, blah... and then I texted you a big-ass paragraph from Lohith's WhatsApp...

Then we both started texting normally, and all of a sudden, you were like, "Sorry, is it too much to ask for? Can you bring dabba tomorrow?" I literally, fucking literally, almost teared up my eyes, you know. How cute was that... It was really so cute so so so cute, and that day I decided that I'm never going to lose this girl. 🥺 She is so precious... I was wondering if girls like these actually exist even in this generation who are so down to earth and simple 😍

Cutu... that day I got to know that ,yes it's worth trying on you and never give up. How can a girl be so good even in this generation... you don't complain, you do adjust with everything, you are always comfortable with everything... Akshata, you are such a lovely girl. 😍😍

You know, girls ask for different things and gifts all that, but you, after all, you asked me to bring dabba 🥺 Cutu...

Now you tell me, why should I stop trying on you when you are this good wifey material... No, I won't stop trying on you. ❤️❤️❤️❤️ You will be mine, and I'm all yours for sure. ❤️❤️

Now let me tell you about what happened the next day...

That day we talked a lot, and yeah, I decided that I will never give up on this girl... and let me tell you, every time I speak with you, my mood becomes better, all my worries go away, and your existence makes me so much happier. It feels like to be with you forever, laugh right the way you laugh genuinely makes me happy. 😊 You know what I want, to talk to you all the time and tell you what I did the entire day and what you did the entire day, that's all I wish for. 🥺❤️

Akshata's favour list

I have made a list itself of what you like and dislike.
(I need to get to know more of you to add to this list)

Akshata's favor list

- She loves puliyogare.
- She mainly loves home food.
- She also mentioned once she loves sankrathi food.
- She doesn't drink juice in a normal cup; she needs a disposable cup.
- She needs salt in pineapple juice.
- Hold her hand or better wrap your hand around her shoulders while crossing the road; she is a bit scared.
- While walking on the footpath, walk on the side where vehicles are coming when you are with her.
- I have observed that she likes reels which are related to singing, so she loves music.
- She does not fall for toxic people; you have to be sweet with her. 🥺
- She doesn't like texting; she is more of a call person, but I irritate her to text. 😂😄👍
- White is her favorite color.
- She tells she is matured, but she is chinnu, chinnu only she is. 😊 Kid she is...
- And on her (you what) IG, she loves chocolate; talk to her and make her laugh, and going out with her also might help to make her mood happy.
- She is not a materialistic person 😊
- She enjoys things in a different way; she loves simple things like street food and roaming around and enjoying every moment of it.
- She loves traveling, but not the traveling part (does not like traveling in a bus mainly), only the destination.
- She overthinks sometimes or most of the time; she thinks of her family because she is far from them; she misses them a lot, I guess. She is very sensitive, and you should actually be sweet with her.
- She loves dogs 🐶
- When she gets headaches, I don't know when, she gets it might be occasionally or sometimes, but that time don't disturb her too much, tell her to take care and drink coffee...

So that's all, I guess, for this time... Short, sweet, and cute, just like you. 🥰

Rest, I will upload it on the website.

- The first time we went out
